

I am very concerned that a large broadcasting company like Sinclair could dictate what its affiliates have to broadcast. If they are permitted to require their stations to preempt programming and run only negative programs about Senator John Kerry, which I believe is illegal, then at the very least, they should be required to give equal time to something positive about him.